TTL Ticker Tales

Once a year, on Diwali, markets open.

A short special session marks the start of the Samvat year.

Think of it like opening a new account book on the first day of the new year.

Ticker Tales

It looks ceremonial.

It is not a demo.

Every trade in the session
creates a settlement obligation.
Shares and money move
like on any other day.

TTL Ticker Tales

Sunday, 8 November.

Normal trading starts at 2:20 pm.

Exchanges set the hours by circular each year, so they move. Check the circular.
