EDUTALE

OLD PAPER SHARES

Bought shares before 2019? Your name may not be on them.

SEBI opened a one-year window.
It closes 4 February 2027.

Since 1 April 2019, paper shares can't be transferred.

Some people paid and signed the transfer deed before that. The shares never moved.

Like a signed property agreement that was never registered.

Not for anyone with old certificates.

Only for deeds signed before April 2019.

The transfer was never lodged,
or was rejected or returned.
And you need the original certificate.

What you submit

1. Original certificate and the signed transfer deed
2. KYC and a recent demat client master list
3. A notarised undertaking and indemnity

Shares arrive in demat form only.

OBJECTION WINDOW

Then a one-year lock-in: no transfer, lien or pledge.

In the July 2025 window, 66% of requests to the 8 largest registrars were fresh lodgements.

THE TAKEAWAY

An old paper share is only as good as the paperwork behind it.

For pre-2019 deals, that paperwork now has a deadline.
