TTL ▲ Ticker Tales

EDUTALE

THE UNPAID BILL

Unpaid fee. One trading day a week.

Skip one bill to the exchange and a stock can be squeezed.

tickertales.in

Swipe →

FOLLOW @tickertalesOG

Every listed company pays a yearly fee.

To the exchange it is listed on.

Think of the maintenance charge a housing society collects.

Not optional. SEBI rules require it.

Easy to mix up.

1. The stock leaves the normal EQ series.
2. Its trading is squeezed to one weekday slot.

The new home: BE or BZ, trade-for-trade.

TTL Ticker Tales

NSE circular, 11 August 2026

1. Fee unpaid by 7 September 2026
2. EQ trading restricted from 10 September
3. From 15 September: first trading day of each week

Until the fee is paid.

Ticker Tales

NSE list, August 2026

9
COMPANIES AT RISK

6
ALREADY LIMITED

Five of the nine were marked temporarily suspended after a capital reduction.

TTL Ticker Tales

THE TAKEAWAY

A ticker on screen does not mean ordinary trading.

The cause can be a plain unpaid bill, not the business.

Read the full Edutale → tickertales.in

Follow

FOLLOW @tickertalesOG